On December 27, 1966, [redacted] b7C

On December 27, 1966, [redacted] b7C
[redacted] North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Durham, North Carolina, advised he recalls the applicant's employment in a clerical capacity for a period of several months about the year 1927. He described the applicant as an intellectually inclined young girl at that time, who was an extremely efficient and dependable employee. There was never any reason to question her character, associates or loyalty to the United States Government during the brief period of his acquaintance with her in 1927.

On December 27, 1966, [redacted] b7C
[redacted] North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Durham, North Carolina, advised he cannot now recall applicant's employment with the company, but he does remember her. She knows of no association with any persons of questionable background or reputation. In her opinion the applicant is a loyal American citizen, and [] advised she would recommend her for a position of trust with the United States Government without any reservation.

BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION

This investigation was conducted at the request of the Civil Service Commission (CSC), based upon the applicant's answer to Question 26, on Application For Federal Employment, certified by the applicant. Question 26 reads, "Are you now, or have you ever been, a member of the Communist Party, United States of America, the Communist Political Association, the Young Communist League, or any other communist organization?". The applicant answered no to this question, but in the appendix to her Application For Federal Employment she made the following statement:

APPENDIX - Question No. 26

"During 1936-1938, I was associated with the Lovestonite group in New York City. I joined this group because I was informed I could get an understanding of and critical appraisal of Communism, which I did. While the leaders of this group were former members of the Communist Party in the 1920's, they were the most knowledgeable critics of Communist methods and tactics, and for that reason I have never regretted my exposure to them. My own philosophy has been one of creative non-violent direct action which I have studied and espoused since my law student days in the early 1940's."

Subsequent to that, she received an appointment at the University of Ghana where she taught Constitutional Law. He stated that she did an extraordinary job in teaching the students there the importance of a written constitution and of the rule of law. He described her work in Ghana as "a real job of Americanism", and advised that it took place at a time when NKRUMAH was shifting the country "to the left" and "left wing elements attempted to make life miserable" for the applicant.
